

The Embassy of Austria would like to invite you to the panel discussion

“EU-Asian relations: stock taking and future expectations after the ASEM Summit”

Tuesday 6 November 2018, 15.30-17.00

Austrian Residence (Koninginnegracht 31, The Hague)

The EU as well as Austria recently adopted a new Asia-strategy. After the 12th Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM), taking place on 18 and 19 October 2018 in Brussels, we will focus on the outcomes of this summit, as well as on the expectations for the future relationship between Europe and Asia. The event will be followed by a reception with Asian and Austrian food and drinks.

Introductory words: H.E. Heidemaria Gürer, Austrian Ambassador to the Netherlands

Panelists:

George Cunningham, Senior Adviser Asia and Pacific Department, European External Action Service

H.E. Magzhan Ilyassov, Ambassador of Kazakhstan to The Netherlands

H.E. Matthew Neuhaus, Ambassador of Australia to The Netherlands

H.E. Sheikh Mohammed Belal, Ambassador of Bangladesh to The Netherlands

H.E. Eksiri Pintaruchi, Ambassador of Thailand to The Netherlands

Moderation: Maaïke Okano-Heijmans, Senior Research Fellow at the Clingendael Institute

Registration for the event (limited number of seats available): antonia.reininger@bmeia.gv.at